Chairman's Report 2013

The Chairman provided a report outlining the activities and achievements of the parish council over the past year.

The Chairman reported that donations had been provided to the jubilee committee along with purchasing mugs for the school children in the village. The Glandford Canoe Club, The Horticultural Society, The Royal British Legion and the Village Hall also benefitted from donations. The parish council had maintained their financial commitments to the budget set at the beginning of the year and the upkeep of the parish had also remained within budget. Activities at the playing fields had been relatively quiet this year and no major financial spend had been undertaken at the playing fields.

The Civic Service was very well attended, the Chairman thanked Cllr Mrs Jarratt and the clerk for organising this event.

Scawby won the best kept village competition once again – thanks to all who helped maintain the village throughout the year.

The Chairman reported that the crime rate in the village had stabilised.
