

NELTHORPE SCHOOL CHARITY

The Nelthorpe School Charity was originally founded by Richard Nelthorpe in 1706 to establish a school for young people in Scawby.

The charity now provides some financial support to Scawby Academy, but also hands out grants to young people under the age of 25 to help support their personal development. To apply you must be living within the “ancient parish of Scawby” (Scawby, Sturton, Greetwell and parts of Scawby Brook).

If you need to buy equipment for educational or sporting purposes, or want to undertake a trip for educational, sporting or charitable purposes, or you are struggling to meet expenses connected with your children attending school, PLEASE CONTACT US.
